

■ COMPULSORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE LAW

TERMS: In general, every person who has custody of a child between the ages of 6 and 16 must send the child to a public school for the full time school is in session in the school district in which the child is living. Among other exceptions, this requirement does not apply in cases where the child is over 14 years of age and is legally employed with the consent of his or her parent or guardian.

ENFORCEMENT: These provisions are enforced by the local school districts.
