

■ ARIZONA OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH ACT OF 1972 (ANHYDROUS AMMONIA)

TERMS: Under Arizona's occupational safety and health law, the state industrial commission has adopted standards for the storage and handling of anhydrous ammonia, which is commonly used as an agricultural fertilizer. Arizona's ammonia safety regulations are identical to those established by the U.S. Occupational Safety and Health Administration (see entry, U.S. — Pesticides & Agricultural Chemicals — Anhydrous Ammonia) and apply only to farm operations that employ more than 10 workers in a given year or that maintain a temporary labor camp.

ENFORCEMENT: Division of Occupational Safety and Health (ADOSH), Industrial Commission of Arizona, Phoenix, Arizona 85005 (855-268-5251).

SPECIAL NOTE: A person may not fire, discipline or discriminate against a worker because the worker has filed a complaint or made use of any other right granted by this law.
