

■ COMPULSORY SCHOOL ATTENDANCE LAW

TERMS: With few exceptions, all children who have reached the age of 6 years but are not yet 16 are required to attend school regularly during the entire school term. The law makes the parent of such a child responsible for the child's attendance.

ENFORCEMENT: These provisions are enforced by local school superintendents.