CHILD LABOR LAWS

TERMS: In general, no child under the age of 12 may be employed in agricultural activities. As long as work does not occur during school hours and is not in an occupation deemed hazardous by the U.S. Department of Labor (see entry, U.S. — Child Labor — Age, Hours, and Related Standards), there are no other state restrictions on the employment of minors in agriculture.

ENFORCEMENT: Bureau of Child Labor, Indiana Department of Labor, Indianapolis, Indiana 46204 (317-232-2655).
