

■ INCOME TAX LAW (WITHHOLDING OF TAXES AT THE SOURCE)

TERMS: A farm employer who pays at least $2,500 in wages for agricultural labor during the year is required to withhold federal income tax from each worker's wages. In those cases, the employer must also withhold state income tax.

Likewise, an employer whose annual agricultural payroll expenditures amount to less than $2,500, but who pays at least $150 in cash agricultural wages to a particular worker during the year, is required to withhold federal income tax from that worker's wages, and thus would be obligated to withhold state income tax as well.

ENFORCEMENT: Compliance Division, Vermont Department of Taxes, Montpelier, Vermont 05633 (802-828-2865; toll-free 866-828-2865).

SPECIAL NOTE: Even when a farm employer is not required to withhold state income taxes from a worker's wages, the worker may have to file a tax return with the state and may, in fact, owe taxes at the end of the year, depending on total income and other circumstances.
